When the doors of "The World's" depot for the free distribution of bread at 210 East Houston street were opened at 9 o'clock this morning there were two long lines of pale-faced women and children, each eagerly awaiting his or her turn to receive a share of the fresh, wholesome bread which to many is now a luxury, so seldom do they have it.

The news that the distribution had begun yesterday spread with wonderful rapidity. Hunger creates a sort of freemasonry. Those who have partaken of the bounty contributed by "The World" and its many kind friends hasten to tell their starving neighbors of the fact, and these in turn tell others.

As early as 7 o'clock this morning there was a crowd of not less than 300 gathered around the entrance of the distributing depot. They waited patiently for the doors to be opened. They watched the unloading of the bakery wagon with keen interest, sniffed the savory aroma of the bread with the pleasing emotions that come of anticipation.

There were no loaves in these poor and by 10 o'clock every one was gone.
The waiting crowds were formed into two lines, the women and children in the middle, the men in the front. From the minute the distribution began until the last loaf had been given away, was a busy one for those in charge.

During that time there was not a break in the line. There was no time for resting. One man handed out the bread and four were kept busy putting it up on the counters for him.

Many were the protestations of thanks and gratitude that came from the lips of those whose faces were drawn from sickness and insufficient nourishment and whose bodies were shivering with cold.

A noticeable thing about these poor people at this distribution is the fact that many of the applicants were largely confined to Poles. The destitution has now become much more general among Germans, Irish, Poles, Russians and English are among those who seek food.

It is evident from the dress of some of these that they have been in comparatively comfortable circumstances. They are plainly ill at ease, and evidently would not come for the bread unless impelled by dire necessity—necessity that does not recognize any such thing as sensitiveness, for there are hungry mouths at home.

GETTING THEIR DAILY BREAD.

TO RELIEVE DISTRESS.

Money for the Poor to Be Raised by Concerts and Benefits.

Through the generosity of Austin Corbin, a concert will be given next week at the Metropolitan Opera-House by Sousa's Band, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the relief of suffering and distress among the poor of New York.
Mr. Corbin has volunteered to pay all the expenses of the entertainment, and several well-known and popular artistas have volunteered their assistance, including Miss Materna, Lillian Russell, Sig. Campanini, Sig. Campanari and Herr Emil Fischer.

Oliver Sumner Teall and his committee will organize the entertainment, and they have also promised from Manager A. M.
Palmer, Henry C. Miner and Daniel Frohman to give benefit performances at their charitable institution, the Henry E. Abbey has also offered to give a benefit performance of "America" at the Metropolitan Opera-House and pay all expenses himself.

A movement is on foot among the merchants of the city to start a new fund for charitable purposes. The firm of R.
H. Macoe & Co. have taken the lead among the first to propose this scheme, guaranteeing six months' support to the Mayor. They have appointed a committee of their own suggestion to receive and disburse contributions to this fund.

THEIR CHILDREN STARVING.

Mrs. Dowling in Prison for Begging and Husband Out of Work.

Robert Dowling, a waiter, who for several months has been out of work, told a pitiful story in the Tombs Police Court this morning, in asking Justice Taintor to commit his four children to some charitable institution, for he said he could get enough to eat until he could obtain employment. A few minutes before the children, who range from two to nine years, were singing in an antennae, while the father was in tears.
He had been out of work for some time, the furniture was gradually pawned to procure food. On Dec. 15 his wife was arrested for begging in the street and her youngest child, and sent to the Penitentiary for six months. Since that time matters grew worse with Dowling, who with his children, was found hungry last night in the basement of a house at Monroe street. The children were sent to the Five Points Mission.

TO MAKE WORK FOR IDLE MEN.

Boat-Owners' Association Wants $1,000,000 Spent on Canals.

A meeting of the Boat-Owners' Association was held at its headquarters in South street last evening, and it was decided to ask the Legislature to appropriate a second appropriation of $1,000,000 for the Champlain and Oswego canals before May 1 next.

The Association adopted a resolution declaring that the true solution of the problem of facilitating and cheapening commerce on the Erie Canal was to construct the canal and lengthen its short locks.

WILL APPEAR IN CORK AGAIN.

Brooklyn Girls Decide to Give Another Musical Entertainment.

Sixty of the prettiest girls in Brooklyn, 40 have gone into the minstrel business for sweet charity's sake, and now that the first performance has been decided a howling success they propose giving a second performance on Jan. 12.
The audience that attended last night's performance crowded the house to the doors. Miss Du Bois as Fanny, and Miss Mosher as Bessie were declared "wonderfully funny." Some of the jokes, such as most girls are poor grammarians because they never can decline matrimony, were recognized as old friends by the blue swells, but were nevertheless well received.
